Dinner and childcare will be provided. If you are unable to attend the conversation at your child's school, you are welcome to attend another.

What do you want for your child's education? What's keeping us from having the type of education we want for our kids? What is working? What needs to change?

Lakeview School District is partnering with Project 20/20 to engage teachers, staff, parents, students and community members in conversations to help shape the future of education in the district. The input gathered from these sessions will be used to drive the district's priorities.
